We all have the karma to take one spiritual path or another, and I would encourage you, from the bottom of my heart, to follow with complete sincerity the path that inspires you most.

If you go on searching all the time, the searching itself becomes an obsession and takes you over. You become a spiritual tourist, bustling about and never getting anywhere. As Patrul Rinpoche says: "You leave your elephant at home and look for its footprints in the forest."

Following one teaching is not a way of confining you or jealously monopolizing you. It's a compassionate and practical way of keeping you centred and always on your path, despite all the obstacles that you, and the world, will inevitably present.

(Sogyal Rinpoche 'Glimpse After Glimpse' Feb 18th)

Facing the challenges and completing your tasks will bring out your potential

Completing the two-year period plus, to obtain registration as a healer, can for some seem to be a daunting task. There are so many demands upon one's time. However, the full programme of courses and workshops offered by BMSI are linked to a mystery school and are a high calling in themselves. Especially, the WLI courses in Spiritual Psychotherapy which will enhance every aspect of your life and nature of being. They encourage and bring self-development and intuition. Each of these courses is based on one of the chakras plus a level of the aura and brings these into higher attunement.

It may seem to some that it is impossible to complete the programme, to meet the deadlines or needs. The demands of the daily life and law of reason seem to indicate against a favourable outcome. You are part of the Divine and need to indicate which way you wish to follow. You must use your free choice before anything will happen. Create your future. Go on trying. The Creator of both reason and feeling is also beyond reason, feeling and our lower earth logical mind.

Cultivate faith. Meditate and invite the Universal Presence into your life. Say "I will act, but please guide my reason, free choice, and activities into the right priorities." Then things that you thought could not be done, will come to pass. In other words, activate your own Divine magnet. A magnet does not work until it is exposed.

Faith is an intuitive faculty of the soul. It takes us beyond the human intellect, with its limited capabilities and rationalizations so that we become open and receptive to higher guidance and a power far higher than human reason.

Human reason can produce in us a negative attitude that creates the very 'impossibility' that our skeptical mind is asserting.

Procrastination or surrender to the saying that "everything will work out in Divine Right Order" are not acceptable options. You alone have the responsibility to choose to put the higher Laws into motion. What you then create nourishes you. Your new positivity and confidence will increase and attract similar people to you. Are you portraying to others who you really are?

We are all like individual bubbles within the ocean of the Divine Creation. We have never left it. All is One. There is no duality. All is in you. Appeal to the higher energy and logic of the whole greater ocean of Creation for strength and guidance and open your mind to undreamed of possibilities. You alone have created your past and present karma. Right now you are creating your future. Call upon the higher powers of the Cosmic Laws and the Universal Presence which can move mountains. Practice meditation, the Presence and positive affirmations daily. (William)

"and in the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years."
(Abraham Lincoln)

Faith is like our life-breath.

It is impossible to live even for a minute in this world without Faith.

Man will realize his mission on earth when he knows himself as Divine and reveres others as Divine.

Service should not be exhibitionistic:

You must seek no reward, not even gratitude or thanks from the recipients.

Insects and deadly microwaves Is mast radiation killing our bees?

I have noticed that there are fewer insects and spiders in my garden this year. The wild birds are devouring bird food from their table as if it is mid-winter. Carry on feeding the birds! (William)

Warnham Scientist Ian Ockenden reports that 'Microwaves are used as an insecticide in the USA. They are very harmful to these creatures. Ian has carried out a 20-year study and discovered that 78 species of moths have completely died out in Horsham district in the past 7 years. Bee population has plummeted by 75%. 85 species in this area in 1999 has declined to 8 in 2006! Ian warns that the fast decline is set to hit plant pollination and the food chain. Athens and USA have also reported that micro-waves badly affect fertility of insects.

Scientists at the Marie Curie Cancer Research Institute in Oxted, Surrey are using a powerful new microscope to investigate the innermost workings of cells. Because the microscope is exceptionally sensitive, they get a better view of the crucial mitosis – or cell division – stage. This new technology means scientists can see the maximum possible detail, giving them a better understanding of how cancer cells behave.

Marie Curie Sun Care Code for people who spend long periods of time in the sun:

Cover-up by wearing a hat, t-shirt and sunglasses.

Avoid the sun between 1100-1500 hours when it is at its most dangerous.

Remember to use a minimum of SPF 15 sunscreen, apply generously and re-apply every two hours.

Ensure that children are adequately protected because their skin is more delicate and prone to sunburn. www.mariecurie.org.uk

God
You cannot see Me,
But I am the Light you see by.
You cannot hear Me,
But I am the Sound you hear by.
You cannot know Me,
But I am the Truth By which you live.

And truth shall make you free, there is no fear
 Flee from the crowd and dwell in truthfulness.

Suffice you with your gifts, though they be small.
 To hoard brings hate, to climb brings giddiness.
 The crown has envy, and success blinds all.
 Desire no more than to your lot may fall.
 Work well yourself, to counsel others clear
 And truth shall make you free, there is no fear!

Torment you not all crooked to redress

Nor put your trust in fortunes turning ball.
 Great peace is found in little busyness
 And war but kicks against the sharpened awl.
 Strive not, you earthen pot, to break the wall.
 Subdue yourself and others you shall hear
 And truth shall make you free, there is no fear!

What God shall send, receive in gladness.

To wrestle for this world foretells a fall.
 Here's not your home, here's but a wilderness;
 Ever onward, pilgrim! Up, beast and leave your stall.
 Know your country, look up, and thank God for all.
 Hold the high way, your soul the pioneer
 And truth shall make you free, there is no fear!

(Geoffrey Chaucer, 1340-1400, English poet)

At one time, you may have the feeling of anger against someone. But another time, love. You are subject to unrest and suffering because of your dualistic feelings. You perceive unity as diversity, instead of visualising unity in diversity.

No.1 is the basis for all other numbers. Likewise, names and forms may vary but all are essentially one. Other than divinity there is no second entity in this world. Truth is one. You are deluded by apparent duality. It is most essential that you understand the principle of oneness and conduct yourself accordingly. You and your shadow are not two; they are essentially one. When you understand this oneness, you will experience divinity. You will realize that the individual is not different from God.

Understand that you are born as a human being, not an animal. Human life is most difficult to attain. Having been blessed with such a precious human birth, what a shame if you behave like an animal. Live like a human being. Keep your mind under control. You are not here for the first time. You are not new to this earth. You have gone through a number of births before attaining this human birth. Give up all your old and mean animal qualities and start your life afresh. Human life is highly sacred and mysterious. Only God can unravel its mystery. He is present in you in the form of Atma (True Self). (SSSB)

All is contained in the sound "A U M"

Some people argue "How can you say that God is present everywhere when we do not actually see Him? How is it possible for Him to hear our prayers?" In fact, sound is the very form of God. There is no place where there is no sound. He can hear everything since sound is His own form. Light pervades the entire world. God can see everything in this world as the very light is His vision. Hence, never be under the mistaken notion that God does not know what is happening.

If the mind of man is not reformed & purified then all the plans to reform the world will be futile.

Let the different faiths exist, let them flourish and let the glory of God be sung in all the languages and in a variety of tunes

Serve man until you see God in all men

(Sri Sathya Sai Baba)
