THE PLAN OF THE CREATOR

When a Red Indian child is born, the elders tell the parents, "This child is lent to you by the Creator. This child is not your own. So take care of him. Bring him up right. Teach him about the Great Spirit. Teach him to be kind, generous, brave and courageous."

If the child lives in sorrow or suffering, it is possible that the Great Spirit will take him back. When the child grows up to manhood and to middle age, he is the same person the Great Spirit lent to us.

In our language we call the earth 'Mother Earth'. We are fed from Mother Earth, we are part alive by her and depend on her. We are part of Mother Earth, and she is part of us.

The forest is beautiful because of its diversity. There are all kinds of flowers. There are tall trees and small shrubs - straight trees, crooked trees, leaning trees, young trees and old trees. There are trees of all colours. When the storms come and the strong winds blow it is not against one lonely tree but against many trees. The trees stand together. The forest is beautiful because it grows in harmony with Nature and according to the plan of the Great Creator.

In addition to the books we read in the libraries, we should also read Nature's library.

Mankind can be like a beautiful forest of people if we grow according to the plan of the Creator.
(Chief John Snow, of the Stoney Indians, Alberta)

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

It is 10 years since UK Private Harry Gains was wounded in the invasion of France and admitted to the hospital in Worcester with wounds in both legs and the right arm.

He tells of the kindness of a German prisoner in a Red Cross Hospital in Normandy when he fell wounded. "He carried me for 70 yards to the beach, then looked down at me, smiled, put a cigarette in my mouth, lit it, and put his lighter into my pocket. Then he took off his white shirt, tore it into shreds and dressed my wounds. Having done this, he kissed me, with tears in his eyes, and then walked away to attend to other wounded."

May the road rise with you, may the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine
warm upon your face,
and the rains soft upon
your fields.
And, until we meet again
May God keep you in the hollow of His hand.

DO YOU SEE THE PARALLELS IN THE TEACHINGS OF JESUS AND SAI BABA?

(Jesus)
*Will a person gain
anything if he wins
the whole world
but loses his life?*

(Sai Baba)
*Man can realise his mission on earth
only when he knows himself as Divine and when he reverts all others as Divine.*

William Lambert,
Horsham

"May the Lord grant me the SERENITY to accept the things I cannot change;
the COURAGE to change the things I can; and the WISDOM to know the difference"

(Reinhold Niebuhr)

Culture is universal in its scope and significance.

*All are One.
Be alike to everyone.*

*Together we shall live.
Together we shall move.
Together we shall grow in splendour.*

Together we shall live in amity and harmony, without conflict and skirmish.

Secular learning should be coupled with spirituality, it is only this harmonious blend that will lend beauty and radiance to life.

We should not learn merely to fill our bellies, but also to fill our hearts with bliss. The food eaten fills the stomach only but does not fill the mind.

Spiritual food fills the mind and gives eternal bliss.

(Sri Sathya Sai Baba)

WORK IS WORSHIP... (SSB)

We are a cosmic seed, a part of the Divine, born into a human body and life upon the planet earth.
Here we have to re-learn; we grow as a child, as a teenager, then as an adult and we find our work.
For many years, we are inclined to play silly emotional games. Some people flit from job to job, from one interest to another, but do not find their true way, for they are following the promptings of the earth self and ego and the earth will, instead of the Will of the Divine.

With our free choice, we need to choose our work and stick to it, making it perfect, with Duty, Discipline and Devotion, to fulfil the destiny of our coming to Earth.
All work is equal in the sight of the Divine, whether we clean the toilets, or whether we are a Pope! We all have to play in the great jig-saw of life. Our work is grounding the Divine energies.
Be a practical mystic.

The roots of each one of us are in the higher worlds, going back through our ancestors and through our many previous lives, directly into the Holy Nursery where new souls are born. So if in our earth life we find we have made a wrong choice, then we must make space for something more appropriate to come in. It is necessary to hold on to our spiritual ideals, whereby our work becomes infused with Divine energy.

Our destiny is to assist in the spiritualisation of matter. This entails taking the straight and hard way, no matter how difficult it may be, and no matter what sacrifices have to be made and to be prepared for our family and friends not understanding. So in seeking to serve the Divine intention, we do not listen to mischievous thoughts, nor to mischievous spirits – not all voices are the Truth.

You will be challenged.
Be true to who and what you truly are, a holy being on a holy journey in the sea of a human earth life.
So do not succumb to inevitable temptations, by other people's storms and the pressures of Nature as you seek to serve the need for your own evolution and the evolution of all life. The imperfect within us is forever striving to become more perfect and in harmony with our destiny and the Divine Will. So say every day "I AM THAT I AM"
Be at peace and continually move on to meet your destiny.

May each one of you be blessed and helped on your journey

as you LISTEN TO THE INNER VOICE IN YOUR HEART

(William)

ENLIGHTENED LEADERSHIP

is spiritual if we understand spirituality not as some blind or religious dogma or ideology, but as the domain of awareness where we experience values like truth, goodness, beauty, love and compassion, plus also intuition, reliability, insight and focussed attention. (Deepak Chopra)

I AM the I AM in a human body. In the here and now as a human being on earth, I accomplish the Sacred Task that my soul has accepted.

It is my intention to serve the Divine Love.

I am at one with this Divine Force, which holds and sustains me. From THIS I have emerged and to THIS I am returning again.

I make myself aware of the truth that my soul is of unique beauty, which is embodied in my being human and grants it, its particular expression.

IN MY HEART, I AM IN MY CONSCIOUSNESS, I AM
IN MY SOUL, I AM
IN MY SPIRIT, I AM I AM THE I AM

(Brigitte Lina, translated by Anna Noe Just, GRAZ, Austria, past students of our WLI courses)

LAST TESTAMENT OF LONGCHENPA

In a cloudless night sky, the full moon "The Lord of the Stars" is about to rise...

The face of my compassionate Lord, Padmasambhava, draws me on, radiating its tender welcome.

My delight in death is far, far greater than the delight of traders at making vast fortunes at sea, or the Lords of the Gods who vaunt their victory in battle, or of those sages who have entered the rapture of perfect absorption.

So just as a traveller who sets out on the road when the time has come to go, I will not remain in this world any longer;

but will go to dwell in the stronghold of the great bliss of deathlessness.

(IN MEMORY OF OUR DEAR DEPARTED BEATRICE WIDDER, WHO SUDDENLY GAVE UP HER EARTH TASKS & LIFE ON 15.2.15. William)
